A great read that will leave you thirsting for more of ...

By Samaris

Mary and Daniel have been through a lot to get to where they are today and it seems the hits just keep on coming. Now that her secret is out at least to Daniel they want to move towards getting Archangel some spotlight as well. How to do so soon becomes an issue. As Daniel is gearing up for another CD release some security concerns arise not so much for him but for Mary. Seems someone is out to get her at whatever cost. With so much on the table they are both worried. Amadeus swoops in to try and help where he can and in a bizarre turn of events gets injured. Mary and Daniel go through so much personally in this story as well that you will laugh, cry and cheer them on. A great read that will leave you thirsting for more of their tale.

She's the type who is looking up for her next richer conquest as she eyes Daniel and treats Mary like dirt.

When Daniel collapse

ARC Kindle Copy for Review

The continuing saga of Mary Tudor and Daniel Kennedy concludes in Archangel.

Things are going well with Daniel on tour which pushes back wedding plans. Mary's alter ego Archangel puts random appearances during Daniel's concert. Which record companies are interested in having her make her own CD.

Mary must deal with a record guy's wife who wants to be in the middle of things using her clout as working for the record company as well. She's the type who is looking up for her next richer conquest as she eyes

Daniel and treats Mary like dirt.

When Daniel collapses from overworking and must take time off work, Mary and her twin brother finds other ways to promote Archangel as they plan to make her known to the public. Along the way, Amadeus gets hurt saving his sister from a stalker who once stalked his wife.

Will Daniel and Mary get to live happily ever after with all these outside forces? A nice ending to complete their story coming full circle.

The Story of Mary and Daniel Continues

By Melissa72

This was another decent read from Jamie Salisbury. In this book we hear much more from Mary than Daniel. Mary has a lot going on in this story, but I felt that the lack of much of Daniel left something to be desired. There were a lot of things left open at the end of this story, many more questions than answers, leaving the door open for a followup. There also seems to be some interesting developments with Mary's brother Damien. Possibly a story of his own, or a spinoff? I still think that the story was well written, as the characters were well developed as usual, but the plot seems to be a bit disconnected from the previous book. I had to put it down a few times, and come back to it after reading something else, so the problem may just be the circumstances in which I read it. I was given a complimentary copy of this book in exchange for an honest review.
