A gripping page turner that makes you hungry for more.

By Matthew Snyder

Evans debut is quite a read.

The pacing is spot on. My only gripe would be that it should be the starting point for a young adult novel series as opposed to a one shot short story because there are a few unsolved mysteries mainly in regards to the main characters headaches.

I am not one to read a lot of fiction but I actually look forward to reading more of what Evans produces.

He definitely has the makings of a good horror author.
