HAWAIIAN HISTORY :AN ANNOTED BIBLIOGRAPHY

By Stephen Spinner

This compilation of bibliographic material is very comprehensive but it is not particularly well organized. It seems to jump around because of the non-chronological category to category references. It is a bit difficult to articulate this with great clarity. One really needs to thumb through the pages, firsthand, to comprehend this organizational flaw. Aside from this issue, the book covers some of the earliest important works and is a great resource.
