Great book for boys

By Julia Hamner

I first started checking this book out from my local library for my son when he was 18 months old. I bought it on Amazon when he turned 2 since we kept renewing it at the library. Now, at 3 yrs old, he still requests it for bedtime storytime all the time. It's a very simple, wonderful, classic book for little boys.

Excellent board book for little ones

By Kate

These board books are excellent. The images are vivid, and there are not too many words on each page. I appreciate the fact that a different vehicle is shown on each page along with a unique sound for that vehicle. It is a lot of fun to read and my one year old loves imitating the sounds that I make. At the end of the book, the cars go to sleep -- making this a perfect book for a bedtime ritual.

Cute and fun book series by Emma Garcia.

By Kym Horn

My son LOVES these books. We were checking them out from the library and he just wanted to keep them. My son was kind of a late talker and these books by Emma Garcia got him adding new words to his vocabulary. I bought all three for his birthday and he wants them read to him over and over again!
